

MIXED CHOIR SYLLABUS 2017-18

Course Title: Mixed Choir

Teacher: Brad Fowers – bfowers@suhsd.net (uprepmusic.com)

Required Materials: Pencil

Supplies: There is a $20 materials donation associated with this course which goes a long way towards purchasing new music. Checks may be made payable to U-Prep Music Department. As always, we greatly appreciate your support!

*Students may be financially liable for lost or damaged items (music, folders, equipment, etc...) As always, students are expected to treat music department property with absolute respect.

Course Description: The purpose of this class is to provide young men and women the opportunity to explore their singing voice in a fun and comfortable environment. This class is geared towards developing the male and female voice and will introduce singers to a variety of musical styles and genres. Students will be expected to positively participate in class by having music and pencil ready, and singing when asked to do so.

Course Objectives: With the national and state music education standards in mind, students in U-Prep music classes will have solo and ensemble performance opportunities. In preparation for these performances, students will focus on proper sound production techniques, sight reading, basic piano skills, basic music theory, music history, and musical creativity.

Grading Criteria: Class Performance: 75%
Concerts: 25%

We will be spending most of our time in preparation for concerts and performances. Attendance and participation at these functions are essential and carry a heavier weight. Missing one concert may result in a “C” or lower for the semester.

Performances: Winter Music Concert: December 13th
Celebration of the Arts: February 15th (tentative)
Spring Music Concert: May 17th

More performances to come... dates and times will be updated on the website and sent home through Aeries emails as soon as they become available.*
